WEALTHY COLORADO BROKER KIDNAPED FROM OWN GARAGE

DEMAND NOTE GIVEN WIFE AT TIME OF CAPTURE; FRIEND OF LINDBERGH

DENVER, Colo., Feb. 13. (P)—A scion of a wealthy, pioneer Colorado family, Charles Boettcher, II, today was held by kidnapers for a purported $60,000 ransom.

Two masked men, accosting the 31-year-old heir to a fortune and his wife at the garage as they returned from a party at midnight, herded them into an upstairs room of their home, handed the wife a ransom note and departed with Boettcher in a motorcar.

Detectives and police who swarmed to the home and then started a search for Boettcher, a friend of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, announced they were stopped by a watchman on the grounds had been informed of the kidnapping shortly after it happened but that after an investigation he denied nothing was amiss.

Police said the watchman, who they identified only as Stephens, received his information from a cook in the neighboring home, who related to detectives she and a man friend were stopped by a motorist who said he feared a robbery or a kidnapping was taking place.

Investigators said the men, both armed, said to Mrs. Boettcher when she was handed the ransom demand: "Give this to Claude and don't read it. He'll know what to do." Claude is Boettcher's father.

The note, typewritten on a piece of white paper, read in part: "Don't notify the police. Tell Claude Boettcher he better get $60,000 ransom. He better do this or his son will be dead."

Mrs. Boettcher told police the men appeared out of the darkness to Boettcher alighted from the car.

"Come here, Charlie—and stick up your hands," one of the men ordered. "Do what you're told and everything will be all right."

Mrs. Boettcher, who had remained in the car, said she sensed the situation and told her husband: "This is a holdup, don't resist."

The kidnappers started when an automobile came around a corner and its lights reflected in the driveway.

"Put your hands down until that car gets by," one of the men ordered Boettcher, who complied.

The car was believed to have been that of the unidentified man who notified the domestic in a home next door that a kidnapping or robbery was taking place in the Boettcher driveway.

The victim's father, Claude K. Boettcher, offered a reward of $5,000 for the safe return of his son. Police announced a description of one of the men was obtained.

East Texas Oil Man Was Fatally Burned in Tyler

TYLER, Feb. 13. (P)—Funeral services for Walter L. Martin, 65, East Texas oil man who was burned fatally in his lodgings here, have been arranged for tomorrow at Fort Worth.

Firemen found Martin in his blazing room yesterday with a flaming blanket wrapped about his body. He lay near a lighted heater, which was believed to have ignited the blanket.

Indications were that Martin had been in the room during the night and that he had risen to light the heater, after wrapping the blanket about him.

The rooming house of Mrs. L. H. Bolt, where Martin had lived about a year and a half, was damaged slightly by the blaze.

Martin had engaged in leasing and trading in the East Texas oil field. He came to Tyler from Wynnewood, Okla., and had formerly been in the cotton business.

BROAD PROGRAM FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY GIVEN BY BARUCH

SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE STARTS PROBE OF NATION'S ECONOMIC ILLS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—A broad far-reaching program for world economic recovery, based on balanced budgets and sound money, was laid before the senate finance committee today by Bernard M. Baruch, former chairman of the war industries board.

Baruch, a close advisor of President Hoover and President-elect Roosevelt, was the first witness as the committee opened its investigation of the nation's economic ills in the hope of finding a road to recovery.

The gray haired financier read a statement to the committee outlining all forms of inflation, insisting that sound money was the basis of any road to recovery, and outlining new plans for farm relief.

Other suggestions advanced by the New Yorker were:

- 1. An international agreement on silver.
- 2. Revision of the Versailles treaty to remove the age-old causes for world conflict, and thus speed disarmament.
- 3. Increase the profits of farm crops by decreasing output.
- 4. Aids to rapid liquidation of debts.
- 5. Encouragement of rapid consumption of commodity surpluses and control of productive capacity.
- 6. Baruch listed four causes of the depression:

Inflation due to the war; debts and taxes, national self-containment; excess productive capacity; and lack of early boom.

His summarized his program for national and world recovery thus: "First and foremost, adequate credit beyond doubt; third, aids to rapid liquidation of debt; fourth, to encourage rapid consumption of commodity surpluses and to control productive capacity."

MESSAGE DISPATCHED TO LEAGUE NATIONS ON MANCHUKUO STATE

BELIEVED REPLY MEANS END OF CONCILIATION PLAN FOR MANCHURIA

(By The Associated Press.)

Soon after Japan informed the League of Nations today that it was adamant in its determination to preserve the Manchukuoan government in Manchuria a spokesman for the Chinese national government hinted that the Chinese minister to Tokyo would be withdrawn in the event the Japanese started a drive in the adjoining Chinese province, Jehol.

The Chinese spokesman, T. M. Soong, acting premier and finance minister, said he did not "see the use of keeping a minister in Tokyo if there should be a drive on Jehol, as obviously diplomatic measures would be of no avail."

He replied "this matter is of no consequence," when asked if China was likely to declare war on Japan but added "any attack on Jehol would be just like an attack on Nanking and would be met by the force of the entire nation."

The league, which has drafted a recommendation that member nations refuse to recognize Manchukuo, had requested Japan's views on a proposal to discontinue that government.

Chinese dispatches said their forces resisting a Japanese offensive into Jehol province were hard pressed in the vicinity of the city of Chaoyang. Seven thousand Japanese troops were reported concentrating on the east Jehol battlefield.

Fears that Japan was on the verge of excommunication from the league caused a heavy slump in the Tokyo stock exchange. A foreign office spokesman said he believed Japan's withdrawal from the league was a foregone conclusion.

"American aid to China" was involved in the recent removal of Chinese art treasures from Peiping after he unexpectedly accepted an invitation to attend the ceremony, Tausk says.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13. (P)—New Lincoln studies appearing, coincidentally with the observance of his birthday anniversary show that the world owes what has been called "the perfect tribute" to an afterthought.

Edward Everett had been asked to deliver the oration at the consecration of the Gettysburg cemetery. He had, a little pompously, demanded that the exercises be postponed a month to accommodate his schedule and that was done.

Then the committee in charge sent out a number of formal invitations to members of the cabinet and others. Joseph Tausk writes in "The True Story of the Gettysburg Address," just published, and included in this scattering list was one for the President. Unexpectedly, he accepted.

After some discussion it was decided to ask the President, as head of the nation, to deliver "a few appropriate remarks," writes Tausk.

ALLEGED SQUEALER STABBED TO DEATH BY THRILL SLAYER ON RETRIEVE PRISON FARM

RETRIEVE PRISON FARM, Thompson while there pretended to be insane, stripping off his coat, plucked his arms, and hid him, Tommy Reis, dapper bandit known to his underworld associates as a "squealer," stabbed to death by Clyde Thompson, youthful "thrill" murderer. In a sudden attack at the entrance of the prison dining room.

Before surprised guards could make their way through the stream of convicts filing out of the hall, the 25-year-old victim fell with seven wounds in the chest. A crude dirk fashioned from a file was the weapon used.

In his report to the prison manager, Captain Ike Kelley said Thompson and B. Allen, 26, cornered Reis in the doorway between the dining hall and the barracks after the noon meal yesterday. He was seized by the men who darted behind him and grabbed his arms. Before Reis could cry out, Thompson buried the dirk in his chest repeatedly.

World Almost Missed Gettysburg Address; Lincoln Asked To Speak As Afterthought

Address delivered at the dedication of the cemetery at Gettysburg, three years and seven months ago, our fathers brought forth in this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether these principles are really true. We are now fighting to see if we can dedicate this new nation to the proposition that all men are created equal.

FOUR SALES TAX BILLS INTRODUCED TEXAS LEGISLATURE

HEARING ON REVENUE RAISING PLANS TO BE STARTED BY COMMITTEE TONIGHT

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (P)—The number of bills proposing to levy a sales tax to recoup the finances of the state treasury reached four in the legislature today with introduction of a bill by Representative Harold Kay-of San Antonio to levy a three per cent tax on retail sales on virtually all commodities.

Hearing on the sales tax bills will start tonight before the house committee on revenue and taxation and will probably extend through several weeks.

Representative Joe Greathouse of Fort Worth succeeded in having printed on minority report a bill designed to give relief to mortgaged property owners in danger of foreclosure. The bill was given an unfavorable report last week by the house judiciary committee. It would delay execution of foreclosure judgments of real estate for one year.

Great house introduced a bill to prohibit public utilities from cutting rates to lessen competition. It would revise the state's system of higher education was introduced. It proposed operation of the eight state teachers' colleges and two of the junior agricultural colleges, with senior and graduate work concentrated in the University of Texas and Texas A. and M. Authors of the bill estimated the plan would result in a saving of $3,000,000 annually.

Insurance companies would be prohibited from insuring property in excess of its reasonable market value, in a bill offered by Representative H. L. McKee of Port Arthur.

LOW RATE INTEREST BID FOR FUNDS OF NAVARRO COUNTY

JUDGE BREAKS TIE ON DESIGNATION OF COUNTY DEPOSITORY MONDAY

C. E. McWilliams, Navarro county judge and presiding officer and fifth member of the commissioners court, Monday again broke a deadlock vote of the commissioners when he cast the deciding vote to designate the First National Bank of Corsicana as the county trust and state depository for the next two years.

The First National Bank was the only bidder in response to the legal advertisement for bids as county depository for the ensuing two years. The bid was three-fourths of one per cent interest on daily balances as compared with two per cent for county and one and three-fourths percent on trust funds during the past two years.

J. N. Edens, president of the bank and J. N. Garity, vice-president, appeared before the court. Mr. Edens stated that there is now a bill pending for the reduction of legal interest to (Continued on page 5)

Five Negroes Are Killed At Grade Crossing Monday

FORT WORTH, Feb. 13. (P)—Five negroes were killed early today when their automobile was struck by a westbound Dallas-Fort Worth interurban at the edge of Fort Worth.

The interurban jumped the track but did not overturn. It dragged the automobile for 300 yards, whipping it against the trolley poles and breaking them.

A. C. McKnight, skull fractured and right arm cut off at the elbow; Bernice Blackman, 25, skull fractured, fractured arm and leg; Robert Caldwell, 40, head crushed and left arm cut off; George James, 40, driver, crushed head; A. Y. Brazier, 30, fractured skull and broken neck.

Democratic House Refuses Consider Hiking of Tariff

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13. (P)—A democratic majority bound tightly by a party caucus smothered under a 212 to 174 vote in the house today the last republican chance to get consideration at this session of legislation to raise tariffs to offset depreciations in foreign currencies.

The ballot was on a motion to take from the ways and means committee the Crowther bill for automatic increases in duties against depreciated currency countries. Both parties had conferred on the issue, with republicans agreeing to support it and democrats to oppose.

Only three democrats—Hill of Washington, Martin of Oregon and Conner of Massachusetts—left party ranks to vote with the minority.

DEFINITE ACTION IN LATERAL ROADS PLANNED BY COURT

CONTRACT LET AUG. 14, 1932, BUT WORK HAS NOT BEEN STARTED YET

Definite action or suggestions relative to the rushing to early completion of the four lateral roads, optional under the original bond petition in Consolidated road district No. 1, was expected at the meeting of the Navarro county commissioners court Monday afternoon.

The F. P. McElwath Construction company, Corsicana, holds the contract for the 9-foot concrete slabs on the four laterals—Emhouse to Ellis county line, Navarro-Cheneyboro, Black Hills and Oak Valley roads.

A. F. Mitchell, county engineer, estimated that it would take $98,924.17 to complete the four projects, divided as follows:

- Navarro-Cheneyboro, $12,777.33;
- Emhouse, approximately $29,000;
- Oak Valley, approximately $27,000;
- and Black Hills, approximately $20,000.

Mr. Mitchell said the contract was awarded to McElwath Aug. 14, 1932, and called for the beginning of the work on Sept. 15, 1932, but the work was not started.

Bids Received On Road, Bridge Work

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (P)—The Texas highway commission today received bids on road and bridge construction estimated to cost $850,000.

Bids were taken on 64 miles of limestone rock asphalt surface, 13 miles of concrete paving and three bridge projects.

Courees in which the projects were located were Live Oak, Jim Wells, Kendall, Kerr, Guadalupe, Comal, Bowie and Tarrant.

ELEVEN KILLED AND MANY INJURED AS RESULT FIGHTS BETWEEN GERMAN FACTIONS

BERLIN, Feb. 13. (P)—Sanguinary clashes between Chancellor Hitler's national socialists and their political opponents showed no signs of abatement today with at least eleven persons slain and 23 injured in week-end battles.

Slayings occurred in eight different towns and cities in various sections of the Reich. Nazis who claimed they were fired upon by communist headquarters in Eisleben, raided the building and at least three were killed and 15 hurt in hand-to-hand fighting. Communists were reported to have killed their dead and injured.

Two were killed in Bochum and one each in Straub, Dessau, Breslau, Dortmund, Stuttgart and Mannheim. Police shot at two women who left their windows open when Nazi storm troops were passing. Since Hitler came into power two weeks ago, citizens in many places have been ordered to keep windows and doors closed while Nazi troops were passing.

The long-circulated rumor that the Nazi chieftain was engaged to marry the widowed daughter-in-law of the famous composer, Richard Wagner, was revived yesterday when Hitler went to Leipzig for the Wagner anniversary celebration.

GOVERNOR CHARGES MILLION DOLLAR LOSS IN MESSAGE MONDAY

SENATE VOTES TO GO INTO COMMITTEE OF WHOLE THURSDAY TO PROBE

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (P)—The senate voted today to go into a committee of the whole Thursday to investigate Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's charge that a loss of $1,000,000 had been sustained in state highway funds by depreciation in value of certain bonds deposited in escrow in an Austin bank.

The senate took this action after about an hour of heated argument. The governor's allegation was in the form of a message to the legislature. Spirited argument broke out as for the message was received but it took no action.

The senate requested Mrs. Ferguson to disclose the source of the information on which she based her charge, and asked her further details of the allegation. The senate also paved the way for investigating other charges affecting the highway commission if it should desire.

Political opponents of Mrs. Ferguson attempted to broaden the scope of the prospective investigation to inquire into the political campaign charge circulated last summer to the effect that the highway commission had misappropriated or wasted approximately $100,000.

The senate refused to name that charge specifically as a subject for investigation but the motion calling for truth, the committee was sufficiently broad to cover that allegation.

Senator Will Martin of Hillsboro said that the $100,000,000 shortage charge was a "campaign canard" and the senate should waste time investigating a thing that was said in the campaign.

Senators Grady Woodruff of DeCATUR said the people were entitled to know whether there was any truth in the charge.

"The time has come," Senator Woodruff said, "when we are raising for a man of decency to offer for public office because of the reckless disregard for truths in political campaigns."

"I want that $100,000,000 charge either substantiated or branded as a falsehood."

Woodruff said that the present highway commissioners, appointed by former Governor Dan Moody and R. S. Sterling, should be impeached if the charge were proved true.

"If it is false, the people who have not decided should be apprised of that fact," he added.

Senator Woodruff stated that "if those charges of a $100,000,000 shortage in the highway department were made with a reckless disregard for truth, the people are advised of that fact, too better it will be."

Woodruff told the senators "pursuing to be spokesmen for the Ferguson administration" that (Continued on page 8).

CONSTRUCTION STATE HIGHWAY 22 FAR OFF ENGINEER BELIEVES

COTTON BELT OFFERS ITS ROADBED AS RIGHT OF WAY FOR THIS HIGHWAY

Cifton Rice, Dallas, divisional state highway engineer, advised, the Navarro county commissioners court Monday morning that it probably would be a long time before Highway 22 from Corsicana to Hillsboro would be constructed, basing his remarks on the present status of the road-building program of the State Highway department with decreased revenues.

Mr. Rice stated Gibb Gilcrease, state highway engineer, would probably have in Corsicana within the next few days to look over the situation on Highway 22.

Mr. Rice formally notified the court that the Cotton Belt Railroad company had donated within the next few days to the department the grade and right-of-way of that company for the highway dump, and he said that when this offer was made, everything was stopped until the question was determined.

He stated that he would send a representative here for the purpose of finishing the work of the procuring of the right-of-way with the Consolidated road district No. 1 to a point near Pittsburg and the paying the property-owners who have given deeds that are (Continued on Page 5)

In the two games that were played Emmett took an easy 36-12 win from Mildred, while Rural Shade hopped to a 41-12 victory over Frost.

The quarter-final games were scheduled to begin at 9 o'clock Saturday morning with the following teams matched: Navarro vs. Richland, 9 o'clock; Purdon vs. Pickett, 10 o'clock; Rice vs. Barry, 11 o'clock; and Emmett vs. Rural Shade, 12 noon. Winners of the first two games were slated to play at 2 o'clock and winners of the last two quarter-final games at 4 o'clock, to determine which two teams will advance to the final at 8 o'clock Saturday night. Losers of the two semi-final tilts will play for the consolation third place title at 7 o'clock tonight as a curtain raiser for the main game.

KERENS, Feb. 11.—Kerens chamber of commerce good roads committee were successful Wednesday in securing an order from the State highway commission that a cutoff road be designated between Kerens and an undecided point on Highway 22 from Corsicana to Palestine as soon as this road is built.

The order specifies that the road shall be designated after the completion of the Corsicana-Palmer highway from a point which will be located by the state engineer to Kerens.

"Although we are a long way from having a road built," Mr. Ross said, "we have made the first progressive step since we began our fight for this cutoff."

LEATHER COATS FOR CORSICANA TIGERS HAVE BEEN PURCHASED

Here's good news for the Corsicana Tigers! Sufficient money has been secured for the purchase in the leather coats for the nineteen lettermen of the 1932 Corsicana Tiger football club, champions of the University of Texas Interscholastic league, as a token of appreciation from the fans of Corsicana.

Coach John A. Pierce has been advised by Boyce Martin, treasurer, and L. S. Cooper, general chairman, to have the boys go to the store of Harris and Jacobs for the measurements.

These fine leather coats will have a "State Champions" emblem on the left side. The emblem design was drawn by Joel C. Trimble.

The coats are being purchased through Harris and Jacobs at wholesale quotations. The coats will probably arrive in about 10 days and will be on display.

The committee did not announce the donors of the coats, and the identity of the loyal fan or fans who made this possible was not revealed.

NAVARRO, PURDON, RURAL SHADE AND BARRY WIN TODAY

THESE FOUR TEAMS REACH SEMI-FINALS IN COUNTY BOYS' TOURNAMENT

Navarro, Purdon, Barry and Rural Shade won their quarter-final games and advanced into the semi-finals at 2 and 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, in the Navarro County Interscholastic League Class B boys' basketball tournament at the Y. M. C. A.

The final game is slated for 8 o'clock tonight, and the consolation game for third place title is due at 7 o'clock.

Navarro had easy sledding to a 33-9 win over Richland in the first Saturday morning game. Purdon advanced by virtue of their easy 35-19 decision over Pickett. Barry had a little more difficulty, but won 24-14.

The morning's tilts were climaxed with a thriller between Rural Shade and Emmett, which the former won in the last minute of play 20-18. With but a minute to go, Emmett led 18-17, but Rural Shade tied the score 18-18, but a second shot later Rural Shade converted safely for a two-point margin which proved the decision.

GRAND JURY PROBE FOLLOWING SHOOTING IN DALLAS OFFICE

SHOOTING TWO MEN BY ATTORNEY BELIEVED CAUSED BY QUARREL OVER MONEY

DALLAS, Feb. 11.—(P)—Denied being the outcome of a quarrel, but the shooting of two men by attorney Robert Hurt, district attorney, said under no condition would he agree to bond for the two men, Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, protesting against the proposed limit the bill to wheat and cotton.

Such a measure, O'Neal asserted, would leave "vast areas" of the nation "practically unaided."

A definite decision to confine the domestic allotment farm relief bill to wheat and cotton was reached today by the senate agriculture committee.

By a vote of 12 to 2 the committee agreed to exclude the other five products in the measure as it passed the house—hog, tobacco, rice, peanuts and dairy products.

The action was taken only a short time after members of the committee received a letter from Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, protesting against the proposed limit the bill to wheat and cotton.

The action was taken only a short time after members of the committee received a letter from Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, protesting against the proposed limit the bill to wheat and cotton.

Such a measure, O'Neal asserted, would leave "vast areas" of the nation "practically unaided."

A definite decision to confine the domestic allotment farm relief bill to wheat and cotton was reached today by the senate agriculture committee.

By a vote of 12 to 2 the committee agreed to exclude the other five products in the measure as it passed the house—hog, tobacco, rice, peanuts and dairy products.

DALLAS, Feb. 11.—(P)—Federal agents today removed $15,000 worth of a narcotic from an express shipment addressed to a man at a downtown hotel.

The package, shipped from New York, was wrapped in brown paper and contained 50 ounces, each marked up into 120 cubes.

STREAM VISITORS VIEWED NEW FORD DURING SATURDAY

A steady stream of visitors viewed the premiere of the new Ford V-8 in the showrooms of R. L. Calkins, Corsicana Ford dealer, Saturday, and preparations were being made to accommodate equal numbers in the evening and on Sunday. The showrooms were open until 9 o'clock Saturday night and from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. Sunday.

Flowing streamlines along modern design typify the new Ford V-8 in the showrooms of R. L. Calkins, Corsicana Ford dealer, Saturday, and preparations were being made to accommodate equal numbers in the evening and on Sunday.

The most powerful Ford automobiles ever presented are available in fourteen body types, all exceptionally roomy. Unusually wide doors afford easy entrance and exit, and all doors may be locked from inside giving additional protection.

Safety glass is used throughout on all de luxe models, and in the windshields of all models, as well as in the rear panel of cars having rumble seats.

Among the added appointments of the de luxe models are concealed ash receivers, cigar lighters, and other accessories.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the improved V-8 motor with its aluminum cylinder block and higher compression and horsepower than its immediate predecessor.

A cordial invitation is extended by Mr. Calkins to the automobile public to visit the showrooms and inspect the new Ford product.

MONOXIDE POISONING TAKES LIVES TAYLOR OFFICIAL AND WIFE

ASSISTANT COUNTY ATTORNEY SOLON T. REINHARDT AND WIFE FOUND DEAD

TAYLOR, Feb. 10.—(P)—Solon T. Reinhardt, 39, assistant county attorney of Williamson county, and his wife were found dead in bed at their home here about 7:30 a. m., today. Dr. J. J. Johns, who examined the bodies, said that death was due apparently to monoxide gas poisoning.

Justice J. F. Black had not reached a verdict.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt were prominently identified with the civic and social affairs of Taylor. Reinhardt formerly was city attorney. They had no children.

When the family's negro maid went to the home this morning, she failed to get a response. She summoned neighbors, and they forced admittance to discover the bodies.

Neighbors said that the radio was turned on and the gas and electric lights were burning. The windows and doors were closed, they said.

Dr. Johns stated the deaths occurred last night. Friends recalled that Mr. and Mrs. Reinhardt had been expected to attend a social gathering last night. Their failure to appear did not cause any anxiety, as acquaintances thought they had decided to return early.

Taylor residents were puzzled by the deaths. Investigators said that Reinhardt was in pajamas and lying in the bed, and that Mrs. Reinhardt was sitting up in bed reading while reclining on the bed. She was fully dressed. The reading lamp on her side of the bed was burning and a magazine lay beside her.

A low fire was burning in the gas stove in the front room, investigators reported.

RURAL SHADE WINNER IN COUNTY BOYS BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

BRILLIANT PLAY AT CRUCIAL TIMES GAVE HARD-FOUGHT VICTORY

NAVARRO, 1932 DEFENDING CHAMPS, GAVE GOOD ACCOUNT OF THEMSELVES

Brilliant basketball flashed at crucial moments enabled Rural Shade to annex the 1933 Navarro county interscholastic league class B-boys' cage title over Navarro, defending champion, 32-30 on the Y. M. C. A. court Saturday night. The newly crowned champs will meet State Home, class A, Wednesday night to determine which aggregation will represent the county's interests at the district tournament in Hillsboro in the near future.

Purdum lost in the semi-finals to Navarro, but came back to capture the consolation title by defeating Barry 26-17 in Saturday night's first game.

The tournament began Saturday, Feb. 4, at which time all the first round elimination games were run off, leaving 12 teams for further competition. Friday the second round games were played, leaving the quarter-final, semi-final, consolation and final games for a leisurely day Saturday.

Rural Shade Not Favorite. Rural Shade did not look at all impressive as the final game opened, and at the end of the first period, Navarro was leading 7-2, and it looked like a repetition for the defending champions. As the second quarter opened and progressed, the same story repeated itself with W. Doolen, Navarro, getting his bearings, and sinking a total of 7 points for his alma mater, before the time had progressed very far.

In a whirlwind anti-climax for the first half, Rural Shade, hit his stride, and swept the spectators, his team mates and opponents off their feet with a beautiful scoring performance.

Following are the box scores of the semi-final, consolation, and final games played Saturday.

SEMI-FINALS. Navarro 41, Purdum 19. Navarro—Fg. Ft. Pts. W. Doolen 2 1 1 5 Compton 5 0 3 10 Vinson 5 1 2 11 Marsh 0 2 0 0 F. Doolen 4 1 0 8 Maxwell 0 1 2 1 Parks 0 0 1 0 Coleman 1 1 1 3 Gandy 0 0 1 0 Total 17 7 11 41

Consolation Interesting. Purdum and Barry had an interesting time in the consolation game, with the score never over two points difference for either club at the end of the first three quarters. Barry was leading 8-6 at the end of the first period; the score was tied 12-12 at the half, and Purdum was leading 16-14 at the third period. Norton, Hagle and Farmer of Purdum got right in the closing minutes and advanced their team's earnings to 26 when the whistle ended the game, with Barry holding a sack containing 17 points.

A freak play that added humor to this game enabled Norton to get an additional two points, while one of his team mates and one of the opposing club got "assists." Norton passed the ball from mid-field down under his own goal. One of his mates and an opponent simultaneously moved to catch the ball from opposite sides. The impact they exercised on the ball, made it flip from their grasp, and sail into the Purdum basket. Two points were credited by the scorer to Norton, while in the minds of the officials and spectators the other two players were awarded "assists."

Since the Corsicana high school has organized into a city-county unit, eliminating the necessity to compete in county events to go to the district tournament, State Home, the only other class A school team will meet Rural Shade Wednesday night for the county title.

Officials of the tournament were Danny Lynch, Dallas, referee; John Haslam, scorer; and Victor Gill, timer.

DALLAS MAN SHOT BY ATTORNEY DIED MONDAY MORNING

DALLAS, Feb. 13.—(P)—Justin Stein, 54, died in a hospital today of gunshot wounds inflicted by Noah Roark, prominent Dallas attorney, in a downtown office building Friday.

Roark collapsed in his jail cell upon learning of Stein's death and fell to the floor from a chair. Robert Hurt, district attorney, asked that the physician keep Roark under close observation.

Roark was formally charged with murder during the morning. Shortly after Stein and his secretary, Arthur B. Strauch, were shot in Stein's office, Roark surrendered to a deputy sheriff and was charged with assault and intent to murder.

Hospital physicians said that Strauch would recover. An investigation revealed that Roark was offended at persistent efforts on the part of Stein and others to induce him to move from the Fidelity building, of which Stein was manager.

POWERS PLANNED FOR NEW PRESIDENT CONSIDERED BE MILD BY SEVERAL LEADERS

By ALBERT W. WILSON. NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—(P)—Endowment of President-elect Roosevelt with extraordinary powers for reorganization as contemplated by some Democratic leaders would be a mild innovation indeed to a dozen nations whose constitutional governments have emerged under economic pressure as dictatorships.

Even in this country, with Speaker Garner urging the mantle of a Dionysius upon his chief, there are others who would go further. Norman Thomas believes the country is on the verge of real dictatorship. Alfred E. Smith thinks some form of dictatorial power to carry on public works would be worthwhile.

The modern dictators are apostles of vigorous nationalism. Germany's Adolf Hitler rode to power on a platform of nationalist promises. Italy's Mussolini thinks first of his own people and their interests.

Hungary now has its "Mussolini" in Premier Julius Goemboes; Mustafa Kemal Pasha is banishing every trace of Greek and Arabic influence from Turkey; Poland's Marshal Pilsudsky is a constitutional dictator and the essence of them all is Stalin.

Even England, priding itself on a government responsive to the will of the people, got around what appeared to be an inevitable series of elections by setting up a "national" cabinet combining the strongest features of all the parties.

In France those two political rivals, Tardieu and Herriot, have put out feelers testing the possibility of joining forces against the numerically powerful socialists, and what both conceive to be the menace of Fascism.

BLOOD SUCKERS

Let any department of human activity shown signs of health—if it be concerned with amusement so much the better—and tax-hungry politicians will leap upon it with bloodthirsty yells. Every legislative body in the country and the millions feeding at the public trough are examining the country with a microscope for victims upon whom to slap new taxes.

There being no better way to kill a prosperous industry or popular enterprise than by slapping taxes on it, it would seem that those who collect and spend public revenue consider it their mission in life to smother all activity and ruin business.

The automobile is a notable example. Taxes and fees have been pyramided on it until even the rich wince. There are probably a million automobiles not in operation this winter because their owners cannot afford to pay the taxes involved in such operation. Registration fees, driver's licenses, sales and luxury taxes, gasoline taxes, tire and accessory taxes and title fees run the figure up to a grand total in some states. Who suffers? Everybody connected with the automobile industry, and who isn't?

Maryland has just provided the prize example. The day after Baltimore newspapers reported a threatened production playing to empty houses in that city for the first time in years a bill was introduced in the Maryland legislature proposing a tax of 10 percent on theater tickets. By the irony of fate the attraction was a satire on politics.

Not only has the United States come to the point where government is of the people and by and for the jobholders, but all business and every department of human activity must fill public coffers with its life's blood.

BIG CHANGE IN THE MAKING

Writing under the head of "Politics at Random," Byron Price, Chief of Bureau, The Associated Press, Washington, makes the following observations:

Little doubt can remain that Franklin D. Roosevelt fully intends, at this writing, to make good in sweeping fashion his campaign promise of "a change at Washington."

He has not been over-communicative since the election, yet enough has come out to make it reasonably certain that most politicians, of both parties, have greatly underestimated the scope of Mr. Roosevelt's intended overhauling of the policies and methods of the federal government.

Of course, the wisdom and the workability of the "change" will be debated at length. But of its gigantic proportions there is no longer any dispute.

Visitors to Warm Springs found the President-elect with a copy of that ponderous volume known as "the budget" open across his knees, and saw the light of indignation flaming in his eyes as he reviewed the multitudinous expenditures of boards and bureaus.

His first reorganization proposals, such as the consolidation of numerous regulatory functions under one highly centralized agency, figuratively took away the breath of some of his own supporters in congress.

His plan for development of the Tennessee valley was so far-flung in its ramifications that there can be no question it was designed to remake the whole pattern

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1932, Edgar A. Guest.)

THE GREAT FEAR
There was a little patch of ground
Where summer roses might have smiled,
But only ugliness was found
And stacks of lumber piled.
And there was room for marigold
And Phlox and flowering cosmos fair,
Which people happily behold,
But that little space stayed bare.
There might have been a patch of lawn
And hollyhocks towering tall,
But the man who lived there
Gazed to the sky and said:
The weeds and let them sprawl,
He saw both filth and shame displayed
And all indifferent, passed them by.
He would have to work were a garden made
His ground to beautify.
And so with some of us, shame we see
On the right and the left displayed,
But to make this life what it ought to be
Means trouble—and we're afraid!

of daily life throughout a large section.

The Roosevelt proposals on war debts—likely to be the key to American foreign policy for some years to come—remain to be developed in detail, but it can be said with reasonable certainty that they are far removed from anything which has been considered in Washington heretofore.

All of the advance indications are that even the mode of Presidential living at the White House will take on a design it has not known in this generation.

Much gold braid that has seen successive days and nights of splendor under the massive crystal chandeliers now is ticked for the moth balls. The retinue of aids, physicians, and miscellaneous functionaries is to be curtailed most drastically. Long-tailed coats will be fewer, and the front door will swing on an easier hinge.

Mrs. Roosevelt has her own car, and her friends expect her to come and go like any other busy housewife, without ceremony or benefit of secret service.

In the executive offices themselves, an all-inclusive rearrangement impends.

On such a heroic scale are drawn the specifications for the new Washington—at this writing.

How the plan will survive in actual execution remains to be seen. Imposing legislative barriers lie in the way.

The certain thing is that the new administration, convinced the American people genuinely want a change will undertake to see that they get it.

EYES ON THE PACIFIC

There will never be a war between the United States and Japan because Uncle Sam doesn't want to fight and the Japs lack the money, resources and man power to pick a fight with America. This is a plausible argument but it doesn't take into account the possibility of war between the United States and Japan and somebody else on the Jap side.

Anyway, the men who are at the head of the United States navy either are not convinced or are taking no chances. The Pacific will not be found unprepared.

About two years ago the Atlantic fleet went on a Pacific cruise. It has been in the Pacific ever since and shows no signs of steaming for home. Moreover, for that period of time all grand fleet maneuvers and summer cruises have been on the Pacific ocean. Even now land and sea war games are being staged on an elaborate scale in and around the Hawaiian Islands.

Perhaps it is the famous California climate which decided Admiral Leigh on recommending a base on the western coast for the entire fleet.

Naturally no significance can be attached to the decision of the Japanese admiralty to hold its own naval maneuvers in the Pacific this year. They are the home waters of the Japanese navy. And the fact that these maneuvers are centered at the Japanese mandated islands between

INDIVIDUALISM IN BUSINESS.

The status of the small, independent merchant in our present commercial structure is a subject which has received much attention of late from economists and students of business problems. The question whether he has a secure position in the development of business is being answered emphatically in the affirmative.

The resourcefulness and freedom of action of the individual will always go far toward offsetting the advantage of large-scale operations of the more complicated organizations. The independent business man with reasonable capital willing to utilize new methods and take advantage of new conditions has a greater opportunity today than ever before. Of course in this era of changing business methods the merchant who refuses to consider the new order of things must give ground to his more efficient competitor.

The independent merchant who functions intelligently as purchasing agent for his community has a distinct opportunity to render a real social service with profit to himself. The principal innovation introduced by the large corporation is the newer type of management and the recognized value of large-scale economies, but big business has no copyright on profitable methods and mere bulk is by no means necessarily synonymous with efficiency.

As commonly applied to the chain-store plan the "elimination of the middleman" argument is meaningless, for the functions of the middleman have to be performed whether by individuals or by warehouses and branches of chain organizations.

LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE IN SEVERE CRITICISM OF TEXAS A. AND M. ADMINISTRATION

AUSTIN, Feb. 10.—(P)—The Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College bore the brunt of criticisms of the joint legislative committee on organization and economy today in a report on its activities filed with the house of representatives.

The college's system of accounting was held inadequate for all purposes, the building program was referred to as undertaken without proper surveys having been made with the future in mind and complaint was made "the taxpayers are supporting an expensive athletic program for the college."

The report also recommended transfer of the North Texas Junior Agricultural college at Arlington to Dallas and Tarrant counties for maintenance, proposed making John Tarleton Agricultural college a junior branch of the University of Texas, converting Prairieview State Normal and industrial college into an independent school, transferring graduate work in engineering from A. and M. college to the University of Texas, and discontinuance of conferring degrees in arts and sciences by A. and M.

Speaking of the A. and M. account system the report stated "unused balances of appropriations are transferred to a surplus account where their identity is lost and from which they may be used to finance any enterprise which the college authorities decide should be financed."

"Under the system of account now in use in the state has practically no control over what activities should be financed from its appropriations," the report said.

The taxpayers are supporting an extensive athletic program for the college, while very little goes to physical education of the student body as a whole. Football and other coaches are paid from state appropriations. The state employs men to give treatment to and care for the diet of the few students who constitute athletic teams, while such care is not given to other students. The state employs men to scout football games, to search through high schools for promising athletes, and to tutor them when necessary. The state employs a high salaried business manager of athletes who spends all of his time and the time of a number of assistants in arranging schedules for games in agriculture, and in keeping athletic fields in condition for the games."

The report said the Agricultural and Mechanical college is the only technical college of Texas which has been able to build up a large enrollment in agriculture, and except for the University of Texas, in engineering. "A little in expensive general agriculture should be given in some of the other colleges, but none of the others except the Texas Technological college should give courses for degrees in agriculture."

All undergraduate engineering should be eliminated at all state supported schools, except A. and M. and the university, the report said.

Criticism was directed at the A. and M. college building program.

"It is unfortunate that the needs of the college were not surveyed before the building program was undertaken," the report said. "It is estimated that when this building program is completed the college will have class room and laboratory facilities for at least double the number of students now enrolled in veterinary medicine and three times the number enrolled in petroleum engineering. The new administration building will be considerably larger than the administration building of Columbia University, which is an institution having more than 27,000 students. It would have been wiser to have expended the $350,000

PIONEER FREESTONE COUNTY RESIDENT IS BURIED ON THURSDAY

KIRVEN, Feb. 10.—(Sp.)—Mrs. H. L. Bloom, 73, pioneer resident of Freestone county died at her farm home four miles north of Kirven Wednesday after a short illness of pneumonia.

Interment was made in the Woodland cemetery after funeral services at the home which were conducted by the Rev. R. L. Tyburn, pastor of the Conv Baptist church of which Mrs. Bloom was a life-long member.

Surviving are three sons, Tom of Streeter; Jimmie, of Jacksonville, and Dempsey of Navasota; two daughters, Mrs. J. L. Baker of Kress and Mrs. Bill Bryson with whom Mrs. Bloom made her home. A third daughter, Mrs. Guy Whitley, died several years ago. A number of grandchildren and great-grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Bloom was a member of the Chancelor family, pioneers in the development of this section of Freestone county. Her husband, who preceded her in death by a few years, was a well known minister in the Baptist Missionary Association and the Bloom home was always headquarters for any transient or visiting preacher.

Mrs. Bloom was a typical Southern woman whose memories included many interesting and remarkable tales of the reconstruction period following the Civil War.

The old homestead, where she was born and reared, and which adjoins her present home, stands as a silent monument to its founder and boasts one of the few remaining rail fences in this country.

EIGHTEEN KILLED IN CAPTURE DUTCH MUTINEERS FRIDAY

BATAVIA, Java, Feb. 10.—(P)—Eighteen men were killed and 35 injured aboard the rebellious Dutch cruiser, De Zeven Provinciën when a naval fighting plane dropped a bomb on the ship's deck today, forcing the mutinous natives to surrender.

The good comprised three Europeans and 15 Javanese natives. One Dutch officer and one young Dutchman were slightly wounded.

The dramatic end to the mutiny came at dawn on Friday when a concentration of Dutch naval and air forces bore down on the fleeing quarry and ordered her to surrender within 10 minutes.

The rebels, defiant to the last, flashed a reply: "Don't hinder us." They failed to show a white cloth on the deck awning, as directed, in token of unconditional capitulation.

FREESTONE COUNTY
COMMITTEE SEEKING
ADDITIONAL FUNDS

FAIRFIELD, Feb. 10.—(Sp.)—W. A. Parker, H. L. Willford of Fairfield, and Rev. A. C. Fitzgerald of Teague formed a committee representing Preston county government unemployment relief organization that went to Longview last Friday in the interest of securing funds for the relief work in Preston county during March and April.

From the $5000 granted this county during January, 132 families were assisted, and the donors was so great the funds were not near sufficient to care for all the calls made,

Efforts are being made to secure a larger allotment for this county for the next two months. Hubert M. Harrison of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, has charge of the work in East Texas and will go to Washington this week to present East Texas' request for unemployment relief. It is expected that the funds will be available in ten or fifteen days.

FOOT CLUBS FOUGHT TUSSELE THAT WAS IN DOUBT ALL WAY BATTING AGGREGATIONS WERE TIED AT HALF-WAY MARK 17-ALL

Temple Wildcats, defending state interscholastic league champions, defeated the Corsicana Bengals at the junior high school court Saturday night, 42-38, in a hotly contested affair. Neither club was able to force more than six points ahead of the other and the lead frequently changed. The Wildcats were leading, 7-5, at the end of the first period, but the Bengals were tied at 7-7 at the half-way mark. Temple was in the lead, 32-31 at the end of the third period.

The sensational goal-shooting of Forrest Temple forward, was one of the features of the exciting contest, and he grabbed off high honors with 14 points, although he was wisely pressed in the scoring department by Phillips Tiger center, who registered 13 markers during the evening.

Both clubs missed checking on a number of occasions, and neither could stop the other from being opponent with any degree of success.

Wildcats Have Speed.
The Temple club is composed of scrapping youngsters, but they are not tall boys by any means. There are several speedy players, however, who make up for their lack of altitude.

Local fans expressed the opinion that the Wildcats would not repeat as state champions after seeing the Bell county club in action here Saturday evening.

A return engagement is scheduled to be played in Temple Saturday night and this will conclude the practice season for the Bengals. The following week the Tiger cagers will be complete in the district 11 University of Texas interscholastic league tournament at Hillsboro.

The Bengals fought hard, but their checking after shots was poor at times. Several sensational goals were registered by the locals. The Temple players were faster on the floor than the Tigers.

SUPREME COURT DENIES LONG LIST APPEALS MONDAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—(AP)—A long list of appeals from court decisions was denied review today by the supreme court, including one growing out of the great machine disaster of 15 years ago.

The court refused to review a lower court decision under which relatives of two hundred passengers lost on the steamer Princess Sophia of the Canadian Pacific Line, which went down with all hands on the way South from Skagway, Alaska, Oct. 25, 1918, were barred from collecting damages.

The ship sank with 234 passengers and 61 crew after striking a reef. An American commissioner who took evidence, assessed damages totaling $2,000,000 for the Americans aboard, but the court disallowed all but 13 awards and granted the company a limitation of liability.

Among other refusals, the court rejected for a second and final time the appeal of the Rev. Robert P. Shuler of Los Angeles from decisions upholding the Radio Commission's action in barring his station, KGEP, from the air.

The list of cases refused review included:

FRIEND OF LINCOLN
DIED IN BEAUMONT;
SPOKE IN CAMPAIGN

BEAUMONT, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Henry Bristol Miller, 93, former friend of Abraham Lincoln and a stump speaker in his first campaign for president, died here early today.

Born at Battle Creek, Mich., Miller moved with his parents later to Springfield, Ill., where he became acquainted with the Emancipator. Although he was not old enough to vote in the first election, he campaigned widely.

Miller was in the battles of Bull Run and Shiloh and was left for dead on the field at Shiloh after being wounded. He frequently told colorful stories of his association with Lincoln and his war record in recent years.

After moving to Texas, Miller was a United States marshal in Calhoun county and later was sheriff of Calhoun county.

SPORT NOTES

By PAUL MOORE — Sun Sports Editor

Weather conditions caused the postponement of the opening of the track practice for the Tiger thin-clads last week and Coach Jake Hanna hopes that he will be able to start the training this week.

There were a couple of real cage attractions unraveled in Corsicana Saturday night. The Wildcats of Temple, defending state champions, were fought to a standstill by the scrapping Bengals, the Bell countians finally winning, 42-38, in a game that the final outcome was in doubt until the final minutes. In the other interesting presentation, the Rural Shade boys emerged with the Navarro County Interscholastic League B title by nailing out Navarro, 32-30. The Southeastern Navarro county leads in the playoffs with attention to the tournament at Hillboro.

Rural Shade won over a field of 25 other B clubs in the largest field in the history of the county tournament.

Rural Shade will clash with the State House A title holders, early this week for the Navarro county championship and the right to compete in the District 11 Interscholastic League tournament next week at Hillsboro.

Corsicana High school cagers go directly to the district tournament and are not required to play in the elimination tournaments. The Bengals will train this week for their return engagement with the Temple Wildcats in Temple Saturday night. The game in Temple.

However, three of the great backfield of last season will graduate and that's quite a blow.

Coach Red Forehand of the Temple Wildcats, who is also coach of the football club there, has been writing that he would have a better football material this fall, and would have at least half of his 1932 squad back.

"Looks like I should have a better club next fall than last, but you set, you generally get it up on," the genial Wildcat mentor said. The eight semester rule will grab only one man for Forehand.

EXPLORATIONS OF CABEZA DE VACA TOLD BY SPEAKER

DR. ROBERT T. HILL ADDRESSES JOINT SESSION OF LUNCHEON CLUBS

Proof of Cabeza de Vaca's explorations in Texas during and for many years after 1528, and the valuable records of geological and geographical landmarks he saw, was given at a joint meeting of the Rotary, Lions and Civic clubs at the Navarro Hotel Monday noon by Dr. Robert T. Hill, Dallas geologist and lecturer.

Members of the Texas history club were visitors for the lecture. Dr. Hill declared that 400 years ago Cabeza de Vaca was Texas' first white settler and explorer. In 1527 he left Spain with an expedition party headed for Florida, which at that time included Texas. The party landed at Tampa Bay, Florida, and proceeded overland to skirt the coast to the west. Hardships were encountered, and the party was broken up near Galveston.

Cabeza de Vaca and three of his men made slaves by the Indians, but later they escaped and left to explore the west. The lecturer explained they crossed 200 miles of unmapped, unknown and savage country in a remarkable feat. They were in the mountains, and returned to Texas at El Paso. Dr. Hill's exit from Texas into Mexico, the speaker went on, has ten different versions by many writers.

Crossed the Colorado, Dr. Hill said, crossed the Colorado river, crossed the Balcones, and explored the Davis Mountains. Cabeza de Vaca then went into Mexico, and returned to Texas at El Paso. Dr. Hill's exit from Texas into Mexico, the speaker went on, has ten different versions by many writers.

TWO MEN HELD IN SEPARATE CELLS IN NEW LINDBERGH CASE

ARRESTS CAME WHEN ATTEMPT MADE CASH CHECK OBTAINED BY THREATS

ROANOKE, Va., Feb. 10. (AP)—Assistant District Attorney T. X. Parsons announced today that he ordered the issuance of federal warrants for the principals in the attempt to extort $50,000 from Colonel Chas. A. Lindbergh under threats against the safety of his second son.

Mr. Parsons made the announcement as he was informed that the department of justice had entered in the investigation of the case which yesterday led to the arrest of Joe Bryant, and Norman Harvey, young Roanoke men.

Parsons order was sent to United States Commissioner Charles Fox, Jr., instructing him to charge three with "mailing threatening communications" under title 18, section 338A of the United States Code, and with general conspiracy under section 37 of the federal criminal code.

Parsons recommended that each of the three—Joe Bryant and Norman Harvey—be held for $25,000 cash, and that Harvey's wife, Elsie, be held for $5,000 bond.

The attorney left the city immediately after issuing the order. He said he expected the preliminary hearing before the United States commissioner would be set for Monday.

Fox was a participant in a court hearing at the time the order was issued and did not immediately act upon it. Parsons left word with assistants to press him for action at the moment he was available.

This action takes the case from the hands of local police who yesterday arrested the trio after Bryant had cashed a "trap" check in a local bank. The check had been planted in an old trunk stump near the edge of the city according to instructions in letters from the framers of the plot.

ROANOKE, Va., Feb. 10.—(AP)—Two Roanoke men were held in separate cells today charged with threatening to kidnap the second Lindbergh baby in an effort to extort $50,000 from Colonel Chas. A. Lindbergh.

The men, Joe Bryant, 19, and Norman Harvey, 26, apparently escaped police custody under federal kidnaping and extortion laws when the department of justice decided to keep hands off the case, Harvey said.

The arrests were made yesterday when Bryant called at a bank to cash a $17,000 check which had been left by a police officer in a hollow stump. As he left the bank with the package which Bryant thought contained "big bills," Bryant was met by Harvey outside the building.

Both ran while police approached and Harvey attempted to get into an automobile in which his wife and a child sat.

After lodging the men in jail and the woman in the detention house, police told of the extortion attempt which was carried out through a series of letters addressed to Colonel Lindbergh and to Chief of Detectives Robert C. Johnson of Roanoke. The latter was accompanied by a representative of Colonel Lindbergh.

The exchange of notes between the extortionists and Johnson was conducted by means of a stumpy office which was designated for the purpose in the first of the letters sent Colonel Lindbergh. This and a subsequent letter, both of which were placed in the hands of Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf of New Jersey, were forwarded to Roanoke authorities.

Schwarzkopf, who compared the letters with the ransom note left in the Lindbergh baby, said the handwriting apparently was not the same.

Federal Government Takes Hand

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—(AP)—At the request of Roanoke, Virginia, police, the bureau of investigation of the department of justice began today an inquiry into the alleged attempt to extort $50,000 from Colonel Chas. A. Lindbergh on threat of kidnaping his second son.

J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the bureau, has ordered John M. Keith, special agent in charge of the bureau's Washington district, to go immediately to Roanoke and take charge of the case.

Hoover, after talking with the Roanoke police, said he suspected that there was the possibility of a federal charge of conspiracy to commit kidnaping.

No Ruling on Denison.

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Edgar E. Witt, lieutenant governor, announced today that he would not rule before tomorrow on the question of whether Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson was within her legal rights in resubmitting the appointment of F. L. Denison of Temple as chairman of the state highway commission.

Denison had been rejected once by the senate. Mrs. Ferguson sent his name back to the senate on the next day.

A point of order immediately was raised by the fact that the governor could not resubmit the name of an appointee once rejected. Argument on that point of order consumed an entire day.

It was said that he had not yet had opportunity to give the point of order sufficient study. Regardless of which way he rules, the losing side may appeal to the senate itself.

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—(AP)—A resolution proposing a constitutional convention for the second Tuesday in May of 1935 was introduced in the house of the Texas legislature today by Representative P. Anderson of San Antonio.

Sales Tax Hearing Will Open Tonight

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Proponents of a state sales tax assembly here today for the start of committee hearings on the important subject of house revenue and taxation committee planned to hold the first of the hearings tonight.

Governor Miriam A. Ferguson recommended substitution of a three per cent sales tax for the existing state ad valorem levy.

Merchants were opposed particularly to the "pyramiding" feature included in the Ferguson plan. A triple tax, to be paid by the manufacturer, jobber and retailer, would be levied on a single sale.

The senate was ready to resume its controversy over the appointment of F. L. Denison of Temple as chairman of the state highway commission. Mr. Ferguson withdrew almost everyone last week by resubmitting Denison's name after he had been rejected once by a margin of one vote.

"The house oil investigation committee prepared to begin the second week of its inquiry. NINE DEMOCRATS SEEKING PLACE IN CONGRESS VACATED BY JOHN GARNER MARCH 4TH

UVALDE, Feb. 11.—(AP)—Nine democrats have filed as candidates for the congressional seat soon to be vacated by Vice President-elect John N. Garner. The election of a successor to the veteran 16th district representative has been set for April 22.

The deadline for filing of democratic candidacies was midnight last night. At that time D. J. Davis, Uvalde democrat chairman for the congressional district, said he had received the applications of eight candidates. A ninth had notified him by long distance telephone that his application was in the mail.

Applications were received from Jordan T. Lawler, Castrovilla, Medina county, real estate broker; Noble G. Cofer, Brownsville, Cameron county, attorney; Gordon Griffin, McAllen, Hidalgo county, attorney; Oscar C. Dancy, Brownsville, attorney; F. W. Pulliam, Crystal City, Zavalla county, farmer; Charles R. Tipton, Three Rivers, Live Oak county, farmer; Moulton Cobb, Mission, Hidalgo county, publisher; and W. A. Dannelly, Hebbronville, Jim Hogg county, attorney.

Milton H. West of Brownsville, attorney, telephoned Price that his application for a place on the ballot had been mailed. Price said that any others mailed yesterday, of which he had no notice, probably would be received today.

The democratic candidates will have their names placed on a ballot for a special primary to be held in the district Feb. 25, for the express purpose of trimming down the list. A run-off primary has been called for March 15, if needed to reduce the number of candidates to one.

Only one republican, Carlos Watson of Brownsville, an attorney, has announced for Garner's seat.

HIGHWAY LOSS Houston Robbers Get $4,000 From Grocery Store

"the responsibility will be on your shoulders" if the senate failed to investigate the campaign allegation. He "dared" the administration followers to refuse to make the charge stick.

Senator Roy Sanderford of Belton told his colleagues that Moore Lynn, state auditor, supplied the information on which the governor based the charge she made today.

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—(AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson, in a special message to the legislature, today charged that a loss of $1,000,000 had been sustained in state highway funds by depreciation in value of certain bonds deposited in an Austin bank.

Immediately after the message was read, the senate began a discussion of the charges made by the governor.

Senator Walter Woodward of Coleman said he believed the governor had been misled by Moore Lynn, state auditor.

"From sources which I deem entirely reliable, it has come to the knowledge that the state highway department, in the face of the law and in the face of an opinion of the attorney general, in January, 1932, began about a year ago to divert the revenues of the highway department to the construction of roads for 22 counties in Texas which now amount to the approximate sum of $1,045,722, and agreed to accept checks of Austin, drawn by the counties, in payment for said work as same was completed," the message said.

Specific Charges.

The said 22 counties deposited various bonds and securities owned by them, of the par value of $1,125,828 with the local banks, and the said banks deposited the same with the Security Trust Company and the State Highway Commission to secure payment of the road construction in their respective counties. At the time said bonds and securities were deposited, it was informed that the highway commission knew, or by the exercise of diligence could have known, that said bonds and securities were of doubtful value, and were not in any event worth anything like their par or face value.

"My information further is that the said highway commission conspired to divert highway revenues accruing from the gasoline tax license fees to said road construction for which said counties issued their respective checks and drafts on the said Security Trust Company in payment for said construction, and previously agreed information is that the highway commission and the Security Trust Company . . . agreed that said checks issued by the counties would not be presented for payment, and would be held and cashed by the highway commission. My information is, that the highway commission now has and holds and has held for nearly a year, these unpresented checks and drafts drawn by said counties, to the amount of some $1,077,426."

Depreciation Heavy.

"My information is that the bonds so deposited by the various counties in the said amount of $1,125,828 are now worth not more than an average of 40 cents on the dollar, or of a total value of $447,371. Subtracting the value of said bonds from the amount of the state highway department funds diverted by the highway commission in the construction of roads in said 22 counties amounting as above stated to $1,045,722, there is a shortage or loss of state highway funds of $1,067,426."

"I am informed that many of the counties did not know until recently that their checks had not been presented and were still being held by the highway commission."

"I am making other investigations of the disposition of other state funds and hope to bring same to your attention soon."

Counties involved in the transaction complained of, as revealed in information transmitted to Governor Ferguson by the state auditor, are Andrews, Bell, Bowie, Burnet, Colorado, Comal, Gillespie, Guadalupe, Lampasas, Live Oak, Madison, Matagorda, Pecos, Reagan, Refugio, Roberts, San Jacinto, Tyler, Van Zandt, Wheeler and Wood.

Lynn furnished the governor a copy of an opinion by the attorney general in reply to questions

Texas Oil Suits Set For Trial On March Twentieth

AUSTIN, Feb. 13.—(AP)—District Judge J. D. Moore today set for trial on March 29 a suit filed by Attorney General James V. Allred in which 15 oil companies and two petroleum associations were charged with violating the Texas anti-trust laws.

Allred filed the suit in November of 1931. Since that time attorneys for the state and the oil companies have been engaged in argument over points of law and in taking testimony before a special commissioner. The testimony adduced before the commissioner will be presented at the trial in chief before Judge Moore.

The companies were charged with having entered into an agreement in restraining of trade by adhering to a code of ethics, promulgated by the American Petroleum Institute, to govern subscribers of the code in marketing refined petroleum products. Allred alleged the code was formulated as a part of a conspiracy to gain control over market outlets for petroleum products and to lessen independent competition.

The suit asked maximum penalties aggregating approximately $17,000,000 and forfeiture of the rights of the defendants to operate in Texas.

CONVICT SLAIN

Reis was serving a 35-year sentence for the robbery of Mrs. Carrie W. Moeller, 75, of Galveston, she was strangled and robbed of about $7,000 in 1930. After his conviction, Reis was freed from the Galveston county jail by Roy Britton, bespectacled gunman, who shot and killed Turner Joe Meyer in the jail on Jan. 2, 1931.

Reis escaped in an automobile across the Galveston causeway with police firing a fusillade of shots at him. Several weeks later he was recaptured in Houston. A vivid birthmark on his face helped in his identification and apprehension there.

Thompson and Allen, who was under 20-year sentence from Rusk county, made no statement concerning the Reis slaying.

An Important Asset

Newspaper advertising is an important asset to any wide awake business. It is absolutely necessary if you want to acquaint the public with what you have to sell.

propounded by Cone Johnson, member of the commission.

The opinion stated there was no statutory authority for the highway commission to accept bonds or other obligations of any political subdivision of the state which are not in default, including those which are now held as pledges to secure funds presently to be used in road construction under the state highway department in Texas which now amount to the approximate sum of $1,045,722, and agreed to accept checks of Austin, drawn by the counties, in payment for said work as same was completed," the message said.

It also was held that under the law the highway commission could not proceed with the work and demand or "bill" the counties involved for their part of the roads being constructed, and that the highway department could not proceed with such work upon the county or counties placing in escrow bonds and securities as pledges for the payment of the highway bill as presented to the county for payment.

Could Not Proceed.

It also was held that under the law the highway commission could not proceed with the work and demand or "bill" the counties involved for their part of the roads being constructed, and that the highway department could not proceed with such work upon the county or counties placing in escrow bonds and securities as pledges for the payment of the highway bill as presented to the county for payment.

The attorney general's opinion stated that "it would not be legal for a county, road district or political subdivision thereof to pledge its own bonds, warrants or other evidences of indebtedness to secure the payment of the cost of such road improvements."

No Prohibitory Clause.

With reservations, the attorney general said his department could not find any "provisions of the statutes that would expressly prohibit the highway department from proceeding with such work and demand of such counties their checks as such work progresses, and in payment of such work such checks against said county deposits if in the opinion of the county or the state highway department such checks cannot be cashed without imperiling the ultimate safety and payment of the funds of the county or counties involved."

However, in this connection, we do not deem it inappropriate to suggest that the agreement entered into by the counties, whereby they and its depository, whereby bonds have been placed as trustee for both the depository and the county, be modified in such a way that the pledged bonds cannot be sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the state highway department," the attorney general's opinion said. "This in order to fully protect the interests of the state highway department in said pledged securities."

To make Children

EAT

Don't force children to eat! The girl or boy who has no appetite has stasis—which means the child is sluggish. But cathartics have caused more constipation than they ever cured! The "California treatment" is best—just pure syrup of figs. Try this for a few days, then see how eagerly your youngster will eat.

Stimulate the colon and that child with a finicky appetite will devour everything you serve him. Here's the simple treatment that does more for babies or older children than all the diets, fad foods, or tonics.

Nature has provided the "medicine" you'll need to stir your child's colon muscles into proper action. California syrup of figs. Pure, delicious, harmless. It acts on the lower colon—where the trouble is. It has no ill effects on the intestines.

Begin tonight, with this marvelous "California treatment." Any druggist has California syrup of figs, all bottled with directions. Use enough the first time to cleanse the clogged colon of every bit of poison and hard waste. Then just a little twice a week until the child's appetite, color, weight and spirits tell you the stasis is gone. Whenever a cold or other upset clogs the system again, use this natural vegetable laxative instead of drastic drugs.

WARNING: There are dealers who practice substitution. Be sure to protect your child by looking for the name CALIFORNIA on the bottle.
